

Table of Contents

MATERITIONARY 3

MATERITIONARY

- Used to represent real structures (natural or artificial) , pictograms
 - Fluograms , fluids (name)
 - Radiograms , energy (name)
 - Stereograms , solids ,(name)

It includes the materials , material sciences , universe , nature and machines.

- Materialism theory , Materialism , From materials to materials
 - biology is to Machines
 - body is real either natural or artificial , like robots and creatures.
 - Neurology is to Computer hardware
 - brain and computer has information , brain is connected to body as robot to its neural scheme
 - direct mental realism vs computer scanning
 - Both need energy
 - force and energy cause the movement and flow , like natural energy inside body to electricity in robots.
 - biocommunication , Genetic language or genes and machine language are considered to be the source of natural and artificial languages and innate knowledge.

From:

<http://www.source.mantrakshar.co.in/> - Kshtrgyn

Permanent link:

<http://www.source.mantrakshar.co.in/doku.php/en/materitionary>

Last update: 2024/08/13 10:05

